

ALGOMA FLORA

Forget-me-not

This perennial has lovely five-petaled blue blossoms with yellow centres. The flowers are very small at 3-4mm wide. This flower spreads easily and is considered invasive as the seeds can lay dormant in the soil for up to 30 years or until they deem it is a suitable time to sprout. It can be found in fields, gardens, meadows and rocky outcrops.

Art Gallery of ALGOMA